CAMPUS & FACILITIES

The Lawrenceville School has 18 dormitories, 10 classroom buildings, and 7 other support buildings on 700 acres in a rural setting.

The Bunn Library was designed by Graham Gund Architects. Capacity for 100,000 volumes, small group study rooms and individual carrels, electronic classroom equipped with computers and a projection system for teaching and interactive learning. Features an ever-increasing collection of 63,000 volumes, 200 current periodicals, an extensive CD collection, online catalog, and wireless web access to over 45 specialized databases. Professional librarians provide curriculum integrated library/research instruction.

The Juliet Lyell Staunton Clark Music Center has 2 recital halls, 3 classrooms, an electronic music lab, a piano lab, 6 private teaching studios, 6 practice rooms, and 15 grand pianos.

The F. M. Kirby Science Center includes 12 individual labs, 8 combination lab/classrooms, 15 stand-alone classrooms, 2 computer labs, a greenhouse, and an audiovisual center.

The Allan P. Kirby Arts Center is an 865-seat proscenium theater with computerized lighting and sound systems, two acting studios, a dance studio, and a design lab with scene and costume shops. The Center plays host to the Parents' Weekend Musical, December Black Box show, student-directed Winterfest, Spring Dance Concert, and the Spring Black Box show, as well as several all-School lectures and the weekly School meeting.

The Edith Memorial Chapel seats 750 and is the center of religious life in our community. Faith traditions include regular worship in the Buddhist, Catholic, Hindu, Jewish, Muslim, and Protestant traditions. The Chapel is also the site for many concerts and musical celebrations.

The Gruss Center of Visual Arts includes studios for painting, photography, drawing, design, ceramics, printmaking, woodworking, and an art gallery with permanent collection and rotating exhibits.

The Al Rashid Health and Wellness Center offers inpatient and outpatient medical care, including psychological counseling services, a consulting staff that includes gynecological care, orthopedic/sports medicine, and nutrition. Certified athletic trainers provide rehabilitation services for major injuries on an as-needed basis. The Center's health professionals seek to educate students about their health and encourage students to develop the knowledge and skills needed to sustain a lifetime of healthy function.

Athletic Facilities include The Al Rashid Strength and Conditioning Center and the Lavino Field House (3 basketball, tennis, and volleyball courts in the arena, 200-meter banked indoor track, indoor ice hockey rink, wrestling room, community fitness center, indoor competition pool, and 10 international squash courts), a 9-hole golf course, 1/4 mile outdoor track, 12 tennis courts, a state-of-the-art ropes course (built by an expert in outdoor experiential education, and is considered one of the best of its kind on the East Coast), 2 softball and 2 baseball diamonds, 2 Fieldturf artificial playing surfaces with lights, 14 other natural grass athletic fields, and a crew boathouse.

The Noyes History Center has an 80-seat lecture hall, 15 classrooms with audio visual capabilities, and a video post-production suite with state-of-the-art editing equipment that supports classroom video projects.
